

I object to the altering of NJ's do not call law to loosen the restrictions and make it match the federal law. Who needs these calls. You should be more interested in protecting citizens from predators than protecting commercial "speech." NJ doesn't want the efederal exemption for busiesses thst we've done business with in the past 18 months. Too bad for the telemarketers.